

Training Programme on “Feeds and Feeding of Freshwater Fish” held at RRC, Rahara during September 20-24 2022.

A training programme on “Feeds and Feeding of Freshwater Fish” was conducted by Regional Research Centre, ICAR-CIFA, at Rahara, Kolkata during 20-24 September, 2022. Fifteen (Male -14 and Female 1) persons participated in the training programme and they were from Punjab, Telangana, Assam, Nagaland and West Bengal. In the inaugural lecture, Dr.S. Adhikari, SIC spoke about the activities of RRC, Rahara and Kalyani field station and other livelihood programme handled by the centre. Dr. B.N. Paul Course Director of the programme briefed about the contents of the lecture both theory and practical.

The training programme consisted of theory and Practical classes in which total 19 lectures were delivered. In addition to that there was practical on Proximate Composition analysis of feed, feed preparation and Feed dispensing, outdoor culture of live fish food organism and Analysis of pond water were conducted. All the Scientists of the centre delivered lectures on different aspects. Training programme was completed on 24th September 2022. During the valedictory function the participants got the certificate on completion of the training Programme. The participants appreciated the programme and thanked the Director, ICAR-CIFA for organizing such programme.

